

Dress Code

At American University of Health Sciences, each program requires students to wear official AUHS scrubs corresponding to their program. This policy is in place for security purposes, ensuring that students can be easily identified as members of the AUHS community. Students must strictly adhere to these guidelines. (See Student Handbook)