Nursing Assistant Training Program

The Nursing Assistant Training Program (NATP) at AUHS is a certificate program designed to prepare students to provide compassionate and holistic patient care services. The program emphasizes not only the technical skills required to assist patients but also the importance of addressing their physical, emotional, and spiritual needs, fostering a comprehensive approach to healthcare.

Students will learn the roles and responsibilities of a caregiver, healthcare safety, and essential skills to care for adults in various healthcare settings. The program consists of 160 hours of instruction, divided into:

- Didactic (Classroom Instruction): 60 hours
- Clinical Training: 100 hours

This holistic training prepares graduates to enter the workforce as competent nursing assistants, delivering patient-centered care that considers the well-being of the whole person.
