Financial Suspension

Students are required to keep their financial accounts up to date unless they have made prior arrangements with the Bursar's Office. Late payments may incur a fee based on the terms outlined in the student's contract. Failure to make satisfactory arrangements or defaulting on payments may result in registration holds, suspension, or dismissal.

For students dismissed due to financial issues, the reinstatement process requires full payment of the outstanding tuition balance before they can be readmitted. Additionally, diplomas may be withheld until the student's account is paid in full or acceptable repayment arrangements have been made.

Note: see exceptions for Veterans Entitled to Educational Assistance under Chapter 31 and Chapter 33 in the Tuition Payments section of this catalog.
